President's Corner

Fall has arrived in force - both by the calendar and the weather forecast. We're gathering again this Saturday at the Peachtree City Airport(KFFC) - more details about the meeting below. If you haven't joined us at the hangar, then you're missing a treat. There's nothing better than hanging out at the airport on a Saturday morning and talking airplanes. The weather should be beautiful Saturday - come join us as we make plans for the coming year. We'll be working out details for our Christmas gathering, looking toward a community outreach in 2023 and strategizing on increasing membership.

Come join us!

Patrick Flowers
